The next step is to arrange a visit to meet you in person and see your space. Typically, the initial in-person consultation takes about an hour. The fee for the initial in-person appointment will depend on your distance from me and starts at $100/Hr.

Photographs and any necessary measurements will be taken during this consultation, in anticipation of performing a Reface My Space Redesign.

A follow-up date will be set to redesign and "reface" your space. Depending on the number of rooms and extent of services, additional appointments may be necessary.

PLEASE NOTE- Actual redesign / decorating recommendations will not be given during the initial in-person consult but will be performed at the time of the Reface My Space Room Re-design, if hired.
